Service / Function Context

The overall responsibilities of the service/function are:

The post sits within the wider Finance Operations Delivery Team. The team is comprised of three function areas: Accounts Payable, Residential Care Payments Team; Domiciliary Care Payments Team, and the Care Contributions Team.

The Adult Social Care Finance Team make payments and collect income on behalf of Adult Social Care. Payments are made for Social Care Services to meet assessed needs under the Care Act, this could include residential and domiciliary care providers, and to and from individuals.

The function of the Finance Operations Delivery Team is to ensure all payments are made within agreed time frames, and are accurate and appropriate. Adult Social Care Income is collected within the statutory framework. Failure to do so has financial and reputational risks to the Council.

Job Purpose

The purpose of the role is to administer Direct Payments in accordance with the Statutory requirements of the Care Act 2014 and internal guidance.

The role will provide guidance and support in respect of the administration and auditing of Direct Payments across Adult Social Care, to people in receipt of a Direct Payment and their informal carers. The role will work closely with external providers who are responsible for supporting the residents of Wiltshire with Direct Payment support services.

Providing high levels of customer service to the residents of Wiltshire and Adult Social Care, the role holder is required to understand the end-to-end process in order to make accurate judgements and informed decisions, in line with the persons care and support plan.

The post holder will hold responsibility for the delivery of the functions in relation to the auditing of Direct Payments. Ensuring all Direct Payments are audited accurately and in a timely way, system data issues are resolved as part of sustained improvements to ensure optimal efficiency and effectiveness ensuring compliance with all legal requirements.

This post will need to ensure high quality data entry and that appropriate ways of working are maintained.

Specific duties and responsibilities include:

- To undertake key functions required in the team that is responsible for auditing all Direct Payments issued by Wiltshire Council for the purchasing of Social Care services. This needs to be completed accurately where payments have been appropriately authorised and within agreed timescales. This will include the Direct Payments for people who are in receipt of services, their carers or 3rd party organisations on their behalf as agreed.
- Use the systems (ContrOCC, LAS, SAP/Oracle) to a high standard, which requires a good working knowledge of all the systems.
- Ensure that all data is recorded accurately and promptly according to Wiltshire Policies and procedures.
- Develop a strong understanding of the processes involved in all the payment areas in order to expand knowledge and expertise of systems and processes.
- Receive and check the records of people in receipt of a Direct Payment including their bank statements, and to advise of any perceived problems, prioritising issues for further investigation.
