Service / function Context

The Planning Service is responsible for the delivery of future growth of Wiltshire, ensuring that decisions are taken that deliver high quality place-shaping, following policy guidance and best practice in urban design. It's both a statutory and regulatory service responsible for delivering housing and employment as set out in the adopted Local Plan.

The Planning Service is responsible for the delivery of future growth of Wiltshire, ensuring that decisions are taken that deliver high quality place-shaping, following policy guidance and best practice in urban design. It's both a statutory and regulatory service responsible for delivering housing and employment as set out in the adopted Local Plan.

The Development Management Service is responsible for determining planning applications for new development in line with policy and legislation. While some of the decision-making process is subjective, there is a high degree of legal and prescriptive procedure which has to be followed to conform with legislation and guidance. The service helps to deliver the council's business plan, by providing new development, economic growth and environmental protection and sustainability.

Working alongside the communities in Wiltshire, and many statutory stakeholders, such as Environment Agency, Historic England and town and parish councils, this role helps to preserve and enhance the natural and built environment.

Job Purpose

As a Level 1 Planning Officer, you will be involved in processing a range of planning applications, mainly householder applications but with the opportunity to work alongside a Level 2 Planning Officer or Senior Planning Officer to get experience of other planning projects and initiatives.

This is a front-line role, responsible for making recommendations on the decisions on the outcome of planning applications and pre application enquiries which are relatively straightforward in nature, and in line with council's scheme of sub-delegation. Reporting to the Planning Manager, you will also provide support to other planning officers within the teams. You will receive mentoring from officers within the team.

Specific duties

- To effectively process minor and householder planning and listed building applications from receipt to determination making recommendations for delegation or, occasionally, determination by Committee. Processing applications involves site visit; consider consultation responses (town/parish councils; highways authority; neighbouring property owners; etc) applying relevant national and local policies and procedures; assessing issues of design and amenity; assessing impact of proposals upon heritage assets; negotiating with applicants/consultees; and making recommendations on decisions. Applications are required to be determined within statutory timeframes.
- Working with a Senior Planning Officer, you will receive mentoring and support to gain experience. This may also include shadowing a Senior Planning Officer on more complex applications and providing additional support throughout the application process.
- You will be responsible for negotiating with internal and external partners on issues that may arise, and to secure improvements to schemes to ensure that they meet the Council business plan objectives.
- Responsible for preparing appeal statements for applications you may have dealt with, where these are appeals heard by written representations. Where there is a Hearing, you will be required to attend (with the support if required) to present the Council's case.
- Responsible for attending planning inquiries as a support for the senior planning officer and to generally help with requests on the day.
- Provide professional and statutory guidance and advice on planning matter and in support of applications to customers, stakeholders and elected members and senior council officers in other services.
- Use creative thinking and innovative practices to determine planning applications in accordance with the Town and County Planning Act, whilst ensuring that the needs of the customer are at the heart of decision making and ensuring that decisions taken deliver high quality place-shaping, following policy guidance and best practice in urban design.
- Working across Development Management and on occasion, Planning Policy, advise, comment and make recommendations with regard to policy formulation. To contribute towards the preparation and compilation of Local Development Framework Policies, Supplementary Planning Documents (SPD's) and Design and Development Briefs.

- Deliver exceptional customer service to support all customers to deliver high quality development in line with the councils' aspirations. Fostering positive relationships with stakeholders is integral to the success of delivering quality planning projects.
- Provide draft responses to formal complaint letters/ ombudsman cases/ Freedom of Information Requests i.e. The post holder must be able to provide professional and concise information to a senior officer in the event of a complaint letter being submitted or as the result of an ombudsman complaint or FOI requests that will set out the issues and concerns as required.
- To assist and liaise with parish and town councils in their preparation of a Neighbourhood Plan.
- Working closely with the Planning Business Support team, provide advice on validation and consultations in line with the validation checklists and consultation matrix. Also be the link between the teams for improvements to processes and systems.
