Job Family overview

Care job family overview:

Support and assist the well-being of individuals and groups to assure their protection, security and development

- Safeguarding, protection and care
- Community, residential, day or field settings
- Ongoing risk/needs assessment of and advice for individuals/groups
- Specification of any non-council provision
- Individual or small group emphasis
- May involve personal care activities
- Likely to involve immediate response to client

Service / Function Context

The overall responsibilities of the Family & Children's Support and Safeguarding Service are:

- To prevent family breakdown
- To prevent children and families needing more intensive statutory services
- To deliver an effective family-based and relationship-based approach to enable children and families to achieve positive outcomes
- To meet all relevant statutory responsibilities

The Family & Children's Support and Safeguarding Service has social workers, senior keyworkers, keyworkers and local partnership advisors delivering or supporting evidence-based direct work with vulnerable children and families (working complex level 2b [CAF] cases, Child in Need and Child Protection cases).

Social workers, senior keyworkers, keyworkers and local partnership advisors work together in pods within existing geographical hubs – with appropriate supervision, management oversight and clear local referral pathways.

A relationship-based model of practice is followed by all staff in the service. Training reflects this model of practice and include skill-stretching for staff to be able to do more without referring on for specialist support.

All staff in the service provide advice, consultation and guidance to other local professionals who are supporting children and families with lower level needs/risks.

The service runs “Local Allocation Groups” (or similarly named group) in each hub attended by key partner agencies. These discuss and agree resource/case allocation in each locality and facilitate the sharing of expertise and advice.

The service supports the Troubled Families programme including in relation to identifying eligible families and assisting with tracking outcomes.

All staff in the service work constructively, collaboratively and effectively with a broad range of key agencies delivering, for example, housing, domestic abuse, substance misuse, mental health, education, finance, employment and/or emotional wellbeing support.

Job Purpose

Specific duties and responsibilities include:

- To be the primary worker with case responsibility for children in need, children in need of protection and children looked after - depending upon the function of the dedicated team.
